

Roasters:

On June 2, 2009, a selection of great specialty coffees donated by some of the world's best producers and importers will be available via Internet auction. You can support these producers—and help Grounds for Health save women's lives—by logging onto <http://coffee.stoneworks.com> on June 2 and buying coffee.

If you want to go the extra mile, use some of the coffee you buy at the auction to create a fundraising effort at your own company. You'll support Grounds for Health's vital work in bringing better health—and sustainable health care—to women at the heart of coffee.

Producers and Importers:

On June 2, 2009, join some of the world's top specialty coffee producers and feature your coffee in a unique Internet auction. 100% of the proceeds will support Grounds for Health's vital work fighting cervical cancer, the leading cause of cancer mortality among women in developing countries.

Visit www.groundsforhealthauction.blogspot.com for more information about donating coffee, and find out more about Grounds for Health's mission of bringing better health—and sustainable health care—to women at the heart of coffee.
