

David Ureña - Finca Lupe - Catuai - Natural (GrainPro)

David Ureña is nicknamed "Macho Loco," and he is a hardworking producer who is part of a group of relatively close coffee growers in San Isidro de Leon Cortez. He's lived his whole life in coffee, but only recently started focusing on specialty. He previously sold his coffee to a co-operative, but now he selects out the best for microlots.

He is able to use the mill facilities at UNDECAFE to process his lots, and he focuses on naturals and honeys.
