

EP

"Lekempti" is the designation given to coffee lots which come to the Ethiopian market through the woredas, or villages of Kelem Wellega, East Wellega and West Wollega, which are in the western part of the country. These coffees are known for typically being larger in size than many other varieties from Ethiopia, and have a moderate amount of acidity in the cup, which makes them valuable blend components.

More more information about coffee production in Ethiopia, visit our Ethiopia origin page.

ID# 8357

Origin Ethiopia
Region Kelem Wellega, East
Wellega, West Wollega

Gallery EP

