

Finca La Bolsa - Las Ventanas (GrainPro)

La Bolsa is an estate in La Libertad, Huehuetenango. They are known for their consistent quality year over year; they have won multiple awards, and their coffee has participated in many barista competitions.

From Maria Elena Video de Ovalle:

In 1956 Dr. Jorge Vides Molina bought a piece of land named La Bolsa; it was given that name because it is located between large mountains. It has its own spring water, and two rivers go across the property, leaving an island of the patio where we dry our coffee, the mill, farmhouse, and school.

One of our strong features is that we have our own natural spring water, which while we use it we are also able to donate the surplus the Municipio La Mesilla, located at the border of Mexico. We support the environment by complying with all the prerequisites of the Certifications of Rainforest and C.A.F.E Practices. The farm also has hydroelectric power, and we work with earthworms for organic matter.

In the year 2002, we obtained second place at the national level of the Cup of Excellence, with a rating of 94.98.

ID# 7978

Origin	Guatemala
Region	La Libertad, Huehuetenango
Farm	Las Ventanas
Variety	Bourbon, Caturra
Altitude	1510 masl
Proc. Method	Fully Washed and Sun Dried

In the year 2005, Finca La Bolsa was chosen by Anacafe-Huehuetenango to impart a documentary with the German Channel D W T V, with the purpose of filming the process of high quality coffee production in Guatemala, which was viewed worldwide.

Location Map

Gallery Finca La Bolsa - Las Ventanas (GrainPro)

