

Origin Select - GRAPOS - FLO ID 19465

From FairtradeUSA.com

GRAPOS, or the Grupo de Asesores de Producción Orgánica y Sustentable, is a small coffee producer organization located near the town of Tapachula in the southern Mexican state of Chiapas. The organization represents 2,600 small coffee farmers who work on an estimated 8,000 hectares of land. Most members come from the communities of Unión Juárez, Cacahoatan and Tapachula, all within Chiapas.

ID# 6175

Origin	Mexico
Region	Chiapas
Farm	Various Smallholders
Variety	Caturra, Carillo, Bourbon
Altitude	1200-1600 masl
Proc. Method	Fully Washed and Sun Dried

GRAPOS provides essential services to its members including access to finance, technical assistance and community development programs. According to the organization, Fair Trade has helped them become more organized. Some of the most recent examples include programs developed with support from Fair Trade Premiums –such as a women's knitting program or mushroom cultivation project as additional sources of family income.

Location Map

Gallery

Origin Select - GRAPOS - FLO ID 19465

