

Huehuetenango - Waykan

Our Waykan offerings are chosen for their pristine example of the dynamic character of coffees from Huehuetenango, with their crisp acidity reminiscent of lemon, grape, or apple, and a balance of toffee and sweet nuts, like almond. In the Maya Q'q'jobal dialect in the region, "waykan" means "star, or light that shines in the sky at night." The indigenous population in and around Huehuetenango plays a large role in the coffee production here, and coffee accounts either directly or indirectly for roughly 80 percent of the local economy.

For more information about coffee production in Guatemala, visit our Guatemala page.

ID# 13479

Origin	Guatemala
Region	Huehuetenango
Farm	Various smallholder farmers
Variety	Bourbon, Caturra, Catuai Typica, Maragogype, Pache
Altitude	1600-1800 masl
Proc. Method	Washed

Gallery Huehuetenango - Waykan

Waykan

